Plan Take-off

If you're planning to build and have architectural plans, bring them in. We'll be happy to do a consultation for all the lumber, building materials, windows & doors, and decking that you might need. We send the plans out to a professional take-off company where they read the plans and accurately tell us what you need. This is a pay service and the cost is applied toward your purchase should you go with our quote.

Lumber Delivery

We are centrally located and deliver lumber and building materials North to San Francisco and Marin, South to San Jose and the Peninsula, and then over the bridge to the East Bay.
